

FÊTE DE LA MUSIQUE

A TRADITIONAL FRENCH EVENT

Every year since 1982, French people gather in the streets of the country to enjoy free concerts and celebrate the arrival of summer.

This year again we want to share this event, an important part of the French culture, with you. This free music festival is organised by Alliance Française Palmerston North and brought to you with the support of the Palmerston North City Library, French Embassy in New Zealand and Palmerston North City Council.

During the afternoon, you will enjoy a wide range of musical genres: from traditional music to pop, rock, folk or jazz... And in the evening, Sam Manzanza and his Afro Beat Band will make you dance to their lively African beats!
